

Do you have a professional interest in Radiotherapy Research?

Join the Trans Tasman Radiation Oncology Group (TROG Cancer Research)

The Trans Tasman Radiation Oncology Group (TROG Cancer Research) is the peak Australasian body for research into this safe and effective treatment. TROG is currently the highest recruiting collaborative trials group in Australia. Become part of our network of more than 1,300 professionals in this exciting field.

BECOME A member

Affiliate membership is FREE and open to anyone qualified or training in a radiotherapy-related discipline.

By joining, you'll help advance clinical research into cancer treatments.

Benefits:

- ✓ Network with like-minded professionals
- ✓ Stay up-to-date with industry news and opportunities in our monthly eNews
- ✓ Access trial resources and Quality Assurance resources
- ✓ Utilise the knowledge of TROG's specialised committees

OR

BECOME A full member

Anyone fully qualified in their discipline, including radiation oncologists, medical oncologists, radiation therapists, medical physicists, statisticians, data managers, nurses and surgeons, can become a full member.

For just $180+gst p.a. full members hold voting rights at TROG meetings; can submit proposals for new trials; or become a Board member or Trial Chair.

Benefits:

- ✓ Receive support at all stages of your trial's development
- ✓ Strengthen your grant application by aligning with TROG
- ✓ Hold voting rights on trial protocols and other policies

WINNER

- ✓ 'Innovation in Cancer Clinical Trials' award
NSW Premiers Awards for Outstanding
Cancer Research in 2013

JOIN TODAY

Trans Tasman Radiation Oncology Group
VISIT www.trog.com.au/Membership

