8 Directors

8.1 COMPOSITION OF BOARD

The Board must at all times consist of a minimum of four Directors. Unless otherwise provided in rule, the Board of the Company will consist of:

- (a) A minimum of four, maximum of seven Elected Directors, which must be elected by the Members of the Company under rule 8.3
- (b) The Scientific Committee Chair, who must be appointed by the Board under rule 8.6
- (c) The Chief Executive Officer, if the Board elects to appoint the Chief Executive Officer as a Director, in accordance with rule 8.6(c)
- (d) The Independent Consumer Representative Director, who must be appointed by the Board under rule 8.6, and
- (e) Up to three additional Independent Directors, who must be appointed by the Board under rule 8.6
- (f) A representative of Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Radiologists (RANZCR)

8.2 RESIDENCY AND MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

- (a) The Company shall aspire to recruit to the Board:

- (i) At least one Elected Director who is a New Zealand resident, and
 - (ii) At least two Elected Directors who are Radiation Oncologists.
- (b) All Elected Directors must be Full Members of the Company.

8.3 ELECTION PROCESS

The Elected Directors must be elected according to the following process.

- (a) At least four weeks before the date of each annual general meeting, the Secretary will circulate to members a notice which must include:
 - (i) The number of Elected Director positions on the Board that will be vacant at the next annual general meeting
 - (ii) Any residency or membership requirements referred to in rule 8.2 that must be satisfied by a person elected to fill a vacancy on the Board
 - (iii) A request for nominations for the vacant positions on the Board, and
 - (iv) A copy of the form approved by the Board for nomination of Directors.
- (b) Any two Voting Members of the Company may nominate any person to serve as an Elected Director.
- (c) The nomination must be:
 - (i) In writing
 - (ii) Signed by a proposing Member, a seconding Member and the candidate, and
 - (iii) Lodged with the Secretary at least 14 days before the meeting at which the election is to take place.
- (d) The Secretary must post on the Company's website a list of the candidates in alphabetical order at least seven days before the date of the annual general meeting.
- (e) The Board may appoint a candidate on the appointment date without holding a ballot if:
 - (i) The number of candidates is equal to or less than the number of vacancies, or
 - (ii) The continuing Directors do not satisfy a residency or membership requirement set out in rule 8.2, and only one candidate satisfies that particular requirement.
- (f) Subject to (g), Voting Members may vote in person at the annual general meeting or by electronic means permitted by the Board. The Board may prescribe a time limit by which electronic votes must be received.
- (g) A Voting Member is not entitled to vote at a general meeting unless all moneys presently payable to the Company by that Member have been paid.
- (h) The number of electronic votes received will be recorded in the minutes of the general meeting.
- (i) Each Voting Member personally present at the general meeting at which the election is to take place, and who has not voted by electronic means, will be given a ballot listing containing the names of candidates in alphabetical order and will be entitled to one vote for each position on the Board.

- (j) The number of votes personally cast at the general meeting will be recorded in the minutes of the general meeting.
- (k) The votes by electronic means received in accordance with the method permitted by the Board and the votes cast at the general meeting will be counted and tallied at the general meeting and recorded in the minutes of the general meeting.
- (l) The candidates with the highest number of votes in the ballot will be elected to fill each vacancy on the Board unless their election would conflict with the residency and membership requirements set out in rule 8.2, in which case the candidate with the highest number of votes that satisfies the residency or membership requirement will be elected to the Board even if that candidate does not have the highest number of votes overall.

8.4 TERM OF APPOINTMENT

A Director elected under rule 8.3:

- (a) Is appointed for a three year term from the date of the annual general meeting at which they are elected
- (b) Retains office until the third annual general meeting after the Director was elected, when the Director must retire from office
- (c) May stand for re-election on their retirement from office, and
- (d) May hold the position of Director for multiple terms (initial appointment plus re-elections). After two re-elections (entire term of nine years), a Director, seeking another three year term must seek and obtain approval of the majority of the Board of Directors prior to nominating per the usual process.

8.5 PRESIDENT/PRESIDENT ELECT

- (a) The President must be a Full Member and a qualified Radiation Oncologist.
- (b) The President will be elected by eligible Voting Members of the Company subject to:
 - (i) The person being a current member of the Board of Directors and continuing to be a Director for the duration of that term,
 - (ii) The person continuing to be a Full Member of the Company for the duration of that term; and
 - (iii) The no confidence provisions set out in rule 8.5(n).
- (c) The President Elect will be elected according to the following process:
 - (i) A notice circulated by the Secretary under rule 8.3(a):
 1. With respect to the annual general meeting that will mark the commencement of the final year of a President's term determined in accordance with rule 8.5(l); or
 2. At a time when there is a vacancy in the office of President,

Must include, in addition to the other matters required to be included in that notice:

3. A request for nominations for the position of President Elect, and
4. A copy of the form approved by the Board for nomination of the President Elect;

And if rule 8.5(c)(i)(1) applies:

5. Notification that the President has one year of term remaining;
6. Notification of whether or not the President is eligible for reappointment for a further three year term in accordance with rule 8.5(l).

- (d) Subject to rule 8.3(e), the nomination and voting process for Elected Directors as set out in rules 8.3(b) to 8.3(l) will apply to the election of a President Elect as it applies to Elected Directors.
- (e) Members of the Board of Directors are eligible to stand for and accept a nomination as President Elect.
- (f) Each nominee for the office of President Elect (other than nominees who are Elected Director who are not up for re-election at the relevant annual general meeting) will be deemed to be a nomination for Elected Director and the nominee will appear on the ballot for the election of Elected Directors. The Secretary must ensure that the ballot paper contains words to the effect that:
 - (i) The President Elect and Elected Directors are to be determined by two separate ballots in the event that the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies
 - (ii) Any votes for a candidate for President Elect will not count towards their tally of votes in the ballot for the election of Elected Directors, and
 - (iii) If the successful President Elect candidate is a candidate for Elected Director, any votes for that person will be disregarded in the Elected Director ballot.
- (g) At each annual general meeting the election for the President Elect will take place before the election of Elected Directors and, if the successful candidate for the office of President Elect is not an existing Elected Director, that person will fill one of the vacant Elected Director positions.
- (h) The Board may appoint a candidate for President Elect on the appointment date without holding a ballot if there is only one candidate.
- (i) The President Elect will serve until the next annual general meeting after his or her election as an Elected Director and as President Elect.
- (j) At the annual general meeting following his or her election as President Elect, the President Elect will become President and will continue to serve as an Elected Director.
- (k) All of the obligations of Elected Directors and other provisions dealing with Elected Directors as set out in this constitution apply to the President and President Elect as they apply to the other Elected Directors except as otherwise provided for in this rule 8.5. Rule 8.4 will not apply to a person who is President or President Elect.

- (l) A person who becomes President in accordance with rule 8.5(h) retains office as President and will also retain office as an Elected Director until the third annual general meeting after the annual general meeting at which that person become President, when that person must retire from office. A person who is due to retire from office under this rule after serving one term as President may stand for re-election, favour of continued Presidency for a further three year term after which, having served continuously for two terms the President will be ineligible for reappointment.
- (m) Any casual vacancy occurring in the office of an President will be filled by the President Elect, or if there is no such person at the time of the vacancy it will be filled by another Elected Director with such person to be determined by a resolution of the Board. In the event of a casual vacancy of the President Elect that office will remain vacant until the next annual general meeting of the Company at which time a new President Elect must be elected or appointed in accordance with this rule 8.5.
- (n) Any Director on the Board may propose to the Board a motion of no confidence in the President. If 75% of the Board vote in favour of the motion of no confidence then the Board will remove the President from that position immediately. The removed person is entitled to retain their place as an Elected Director.

8.6 DIRECTORS APPOINTED BY THE BOARD

- (a) The Board must by ordinary resolution appoint Directors to fill the positions on the Board specified in rules 8.1(b) and 8.1(d) as soon as reasonably practicable after those positions become vacant.
- (b) The Board must appoint the Scientific Committee Chair for a term of three years and at the expiry of each term, the Board may re-appoint that person for a further term.
- (c) The Board may in its absolute discretion elect to appoint the Chief Executive Officer as a Director of the Company by passing an ordinary resolution of the Board.
- (d) The appointment of the Consumer Representative Director will be consistent with rule 8.4.
- (e) The Board may in its absolute discretion elect to appoint up to three additional Independent Directors on the terms consistent with rule 8.4 by passing an ordinary resolution of the Board.
- (f) Unless the Board determines otherwise by ordinary resolution, a Chief Executive Officer who is appointed as a Director under rule 8.6(c) holds the office of Director for the duration of that person's employment as Chief Executive Officer and vacates the office of director immediately on termination of their employment as Chief Executive Officer.

8.7 TERMINATION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

- (a) The appointment of a Director appointed under rule 8.6 can be terminated if the Board removes that Director from office, whether or not the appointment was expressed to be for a specified term.
- (b) The appointment of an Elected Director can be terminated by ordinary resolution of the Voting Members.

8.8 CESSATION

The office of a Director automatically becomes vacant if the person who holds the office:

- (a) Ceases to meet one of the residency or membership requirements that they held when elected to the Board as specified in rule 8.2
- (b) Becomes insolvent, bankrupt or subject to any form of insolvent administration
- (c) Is not permitted by the Act to be a Director or vacates office by force of a provision of the Act
- (d) Becomes of unsound mind or physically or mentally incapable of performing the functions of that office
- (e) Is absent without the consent of the Directors from two Board meetings within a 12 month period
- (f) Resigns by notice in writing to the Company
- (g) Is removed from office under rule 8.7
- (h) Dies, or
- (i) If the person was appointed to the office for a specified period and that period expires.

8.9 CASUAL VACANCIES

Any casual vacancy occurring in the office of an Elected Director may be filled by the Board provided that the Director who fills the vacancy will hold office only until the next annual general meeting following his or her appointment and will be eligible for re-election at that annual general meeting.

8.10 TOO FEW DIRECTORS

If the number of Directors is reduced below the minimum of three Directors as required by rule 8.1, the continuing Directors may act as the Board only:

- (a) To appoint Directors up to that minimum number
- (b) To convene a meeting of members
- (c) In emergencies.

9 Powers of the Board

9.1 MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

Subject to the Act and to any other provision of this constitution, the Board will manage the business of the Company. The Board may exercise all the powers of the Company as are not required by the Act or by this constitution to be exercised by the Company in general meeting.

9.2 EXERCISE OF POWERS

A power of the Board can be exercised only by resolution passed, or treated by rule 17 as passed, at a meeting of the Board, or in accordance with rule 11.

15.1 HOLDING OFFICES OR ENTERING INTO AGREEMENTS

A director is not disqualified by reason only of being a director from:

- (a) Holding any office or place of profit or employment, other than that of the Company's auditor, or being a member or creditor, of any corporation (including the Company) or partnership other than the auditor, or
- (b) Entering into any agreement with the Company.

15.2 DECLARATION OF INTERESTS

Subject to the Act, if a Director has a material personal interest in a matter that relates to the affairs of the Company that Director must give the other Directors notice of the interest in the required format including the nature and extent of the interest, and the relation of the interest to the affairs of the Company. This is to be done:

- (a) At the first Board meeting held after the Director becomes aware of their interest in the matter, or
- (b) After appointment as a Director, or

- (c) As soon as the Director becomes aware of their interest in the matter and the details must be recorded in the minutes of the next Board meeting.

The required format is the Disclosure of a Conflict of Interest Form which can be requested from the Company Secretary. The Company Secretary maintains a register of the conflicts of interest for the Board and distributes such on a regular basis.

15.3 DIRECTOR INTERESTED IN AGREEMENT

- (a) If a Director has a material personal interest in a matter that relates to the affairs of the Company, unless disclosure is not required under the Act, the Director must disclose the nature and extent of the interest and its relation to the affairs of the Company at a Board meeting in accordance with rule 15.2 and the Act so that the Director may be counted in a quorum at a Board meeting that considers, and may vote on, matters that relate to the interest
- (b) The Director may vote on matters that relate to the interest
- (c) Any transactions that relate to the interest may proceed
- (d) The Director may participate in the execution by or on behalf of the Company of any documents that relate to the interest
- (e) If the disclosure is made before the transaction is entered into:
 - (i) The Director may retain benefits under the transaction even though the Director has the interest
 - (ii) The Company cannot avoid the transaction merely because of the existence of the interest.

16 Officers indemnity and insurance

16.1 INDEMNITY

Subject to the Act the Company must, to the extent the person is not otherwise indemnified, indemnify every officer of the Company and of its wholly owned subsidiaries and may indemnify its auditor (if any) against a liability:

- (a) Incurred as officer or auditor of the Company to a person (other than the Company or a related body corporate), unless the liability arises out of conduct involving a lack of good faith or is for a pecuniary penalty order or compensation order under the Act
- (b) For costs and expenses incurred by the officer or auditor in defending civil or criminal proceedings in which judgement is given in favour of the officer or auditor or in which the officer or auditor is acquitted, or in connection with proceedings for relief to the officer or auditor under the Act in which the court grants relief and for other legal costs, to the extent permitted by the Act, as approved by the Board.

16.2 INSURANCE

Subject to, and without limiting s199B of the Act, the Company may pay insurance premiums to cover the liabilities of its officers and its auditors which may extend to all liabilities, excluding liabilities arising out of conduct involving wilful breach of duty in relation to the Company, acts not in good faith and for a proper purpose, or improper use of position. The Company may also insure its officers and its auditors against liabilities for costs and expenses incurred in defending legal criminal or civil proceedings, notwithstanding that these proceedings may arise out of conduct involving wilful breach of duty in relation to the Company, acts not in good faith and for proper purpose, or improper use of position and irrespective of the outcome of these proceedings.

16.3 FORMER OFFICERS

The indemnity in favour of officers under rule 16.1 is a continuing indemnity. It applies in respect of all acts done by a person while an officer of the Company or one of its wholly owned subsidiaries even though the person is not an officer at the time the claim is made.

17 Board meetings

17.1 CONVENING

A Director may at any time, and the Company Secretary must on the request of a Director, convene a Board meeting.

17.2 NOTICE

The convenor of each Board meeting must give reasonable notice of the meeting, using any technology (and, if it is adjourned, on its resumption) individually to each Director and each alternate in respect of whom the appointer has given notice requiring notice of Board meetings to be given to that alternate. Failure to give notice to, or non-receipt of notice by, a Director does not result in a Board meeting being invalid.

17.3 USE OF TECHNOLOGY IS ALLOWED

A Board meeting may be held using any means by which each Director participating can hear and be heard by each and every other Director participating or in any other way permitted by the Act.

17.4 PLACE OF MEETING IF TECHNOLOGY IS USED

A Board meeting held solely or partly by use of technology is treated as held at the place agreed by the Directors, provided at least one of the Directors present at the meeting was at that place for the duration of the meeting.

17.5 CHAIR

The President will chair the Board's meetings. If there is no President or the President is not present at the time for which a Board meeting is called or is unwilling to act, the Directors present must elect a Director present to chair the meeting.

17.6 QUORUM

The quorum for a Board meeting is three Directors unless the Board decides otherwise.

17.7 MAJORITY DECISIONS

A resolution of the Board must be passed by a majority of the votes cast by Directors entitled to vote on the resolution.

17.8 CHAIRPERSON HAS CASTING VOTE

The chairperson has a casting vote if necessary in addition to any vote they have in their capacity as a Director except where only two Directors are present and entitled to vote.

17.9 BOARD DETERMINES PROCEDURES

The Board may meet together, adjourn and regulate its meetings as it decides.

17.10 CIRCULAR RESOLUTIONS

The Directors may pass a resolution without a Directors' meeting being held if all the Directors entitled to vote on a resolution:

- (a) Vote via a secure digital voting platform, or
- (b) Electronically sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document. The resolution is passed when the last Director signs. Directors may sign separate documents if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy. An e-mail message containing the text of the document expressed to have been signed by a Director that is sent to the Company Secretary is a document signed by that Director at the time of its receipt by the Company Secretary.

17.11 EFFECT OF IRREGULARITIES

Each resolution passed or act done by or with the participation of a person acting as a Director or member of a committee is valid even if it is later discovered that:

- (a) There was a defect in the appointment of the person, or
- (b) The person was disqualified from continuing in office, voting on the resolution or doing the act.

18 Meeting of Members

18.1 CALLING MEETINGS

A Director may at any time, and the Board must when required by the Act or by order made under the Act, call a meeting of Members.

18.2 NOTICE OF MEETING

Subject to rules 18.3 and 18.4, at least 14 days written notice of a meeting of Members must be given in accordance with the Act to each Member, to each Director and to the auditor (if any).

18.3 SHORT NOTICE

Subject to the Act, the Company may call on short notice:

- (a) An annual general meeting, if all the Members entitled to attend and vote agree
- (b) Any other general meeting if Members with at least 95% of the votes that may be cast at the meeting agree beforehand.

18.4 POSTPONEMENT OR CANCELLATION

Subject to the Act, the Board may postpone or cancel a meeting of Members by written notice given individually to each person entitled to be given notice of the meeting. If a meeting is adjourned for one month or more, the Company must give new notice of the resumed meeting.

18.5 USE OF TECHNOLOGY

The Company may hold a meeting of Members at two or more venues using any technology that gives the Members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.

18.6 ACCIDENTAL FAILURE TO GIVE NOTICE

An accidental omission to give notice of a general meeting or the postponement of a general meeting to any person entitled to receive that notice or the non-receipt of notice by any person entitled to receive that notice does not invalidate the proceedings or any resolutions passed at the general meeting.

18.7 CLASS MEETINGS

Rule 19 to 20 inclusive apply to a separate meeting of a class of Members as far as they are capable of application and modified as necessary.

18.8 QUORUM

No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. The presence of ten members entitled to attend and vote will constitute a quorum.

For the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present, a person attending as a proxy, or as representing a body corporate that is a Member, shall be deemed to be a Member.

19 Conduct of general meetings

- (a) The general conduct of each general meeting of the Company and the procedures to be adopted at the meeting will be determined by the chairperson, including the procedure for the conduct of the election of Directors.
- (b) If there is a dispute at a general meeting about a question of procedure, the chairperson may determine the question and no vote may be taken by the Members on any such determination by the chairperson.
- (c) A Director (and an alternative Director when acting as a Director) is entitled to speak at every general meeting.

19.2 QUORUM NOT PRESENT

If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for a meeting:

- (a) If the meeting was convened by or on the requisition of Members, it is automatically dissolved; or
- (b) In any other case:
 - (i) It will stand adjourned to the same time and place seven days after the meeting, or to another day, time and place determined by the Directors

- (ii) If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

20 Appointment of chair of meetings of members

The President will chair meetings of members unless:

- (a) there is no President for the time being, or
- (b) the President is not present at the time for which a meeting of Members is called or is not willing to chair the meeting, in which case the Voting Members present must elect a Member or Director present to chair the meeting.

21 Adjourned meetings

21.1 ABILITY TO ADJOURN

The chairperson of a meeting at which a quorum is present:

- (a) May adjourn a meeting with the consent of the majority of Voting Members present
- (b) Must adjourn a meeting if the majority of Voting Members direct the chairperson to do so.

21.2 VENUE OF ADJOURNED MEETING

An adjourned meeting may take place at a different venue from the initial meeting.

21.3 BUSINESS AT ADJOURNED MEETING

The only business that can be transacted at an adjourned meeting is the unfinished business of the initial meeting.

21.4 NOTICE OF ADJOURNED MEETING

If a general meeting has been adjourned for more than 42 days, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given to Members as if it were an original meeting, but otherwise it is not necessary to give notice of an adjourned meeting or the business of the adjourned meeting.

22 Proxies, attorneys and representatives

22.1 ABILITY TO APPOINT

A Member who is entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of Members may appoint a person as the Member's proxy for the meeting.

22.2 VALIDITY OF APPOINTMENT

An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed by the Member making the appointment and contains the information required under the Act.

22.3 VOTING DIRECTIONS

An appointment of a proxy may specify the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution. If it does the proxy must not vote in the resolution except as specified in the instrument.

22.4 EFFECTIVENESS OF APPOINTMENT

An appointment of a proxy for a meeting of Members is not effective unless:

- (a) The proxy's appointment
- (b) If the appointment is signed by the appointer's attorney, the authority under which the appointment was signed or a certified copy of that authority, is received by the Company at least 48 hours before the meeting.

22.5 ADJOURNED MEETING

If a meeting of Members has been adjourned, any appointment and any authority received by the Company at least 48 hours before the resumption of the meeting are effective for the resumed part of the meeting.

22.6 VALIDITY OF VOTE OF PROXY

Unless the Company has received written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of the meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy will be valid even if, before the proxy votes, the appointer:

- (a) Dies
- (b) Becomes mentally incapacitated, or
- (c) Revokes the proxy or power appointment.

22.7 STANDING APPOINTMENTS

A Member may appoint a proxy, attorney or representative to:

- (a) Act at a particular meeting of members, or
- (b) Make a standing appointment and may revoke any appointment.

22.8 SUSPENSION OF PROXY OR ATTORNEY'S POWERS OF MEMBER PRESENT

A proxy or attorney has no power to act for a member at a meeting at which the Member is present either personally, or by an attorney or, in the case of a body corporate, by a representative.

22.9 PRIORITY OF CONFLICTING APPOINTMENTS OF ATTORNEY OR REPRESENTATIVE

If more than one attorney or representative appointed by a Member is present at a meeting of Members and the Company has not received notice of revocation of any of the appointments:

- (a) An attorney or representative appointed to act at that particular meeting may act to the exclusion of an attorney or representative appointed under a standing appointment
- (b) Subject to paragraph (a), an attorney or representative appointed under a more recent appointment may act to the exclusion of an attorney or representative appointed earlier in time.

22.10 MORE THAN TWO CURRENT PROXY APPOINTMENTS

The appointment of proxy made first in time is the first to be treated as revoked by the appointment of a subsequent proxy.

23 Voting

23.1 NUMBER OF VOTES

Subject to this constitution, the contents of any proxy, and the terms on which membership of the Company is granted, each Voting Member has one vote on a show of hands and one vote on a poll.

If an equal number of votes is cast for and against a resolution, then the chairperson of a meeting of Members has a second or casting vote.

23.2 OBJECTION TO RIGHT TO VOTE

A Member or Director may challenge a person's right to vote at a meeting of Members. A challenge may only be made at the meeting. A challenge, or any other doubt as to the validity of a vote, must be decided by the chairperson, whose decision is final.

23.3 NO VOTING RIGHTS

A Member does not have voting rights at a general meeting unless:

- (a) They are a Full Member or a Life Member
- (b) The Board has not resolved to remove the Member's voting rights, and
- (c) That Member has paid all monies it owes to the Company.

23.4 METHOD OF VOTING

A resolution put to the vote at a meeting of Members must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded either before or on declaration of the result of the vote on a show of hands. Unless a poll is demanded, the chairperson's declaration of a decision on a show of hands is final.

23.5 DEMAND FOR A POLL

A poll may be demanded on any resolution except a resolution concerning the election of the chairperson of a meeting by:

- (a) At least five Members entitled to vote on the resolution
- (b) Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll, or
- (c) The chairperson.

23.6 WHEN AND HOW POLLS MUST BE TAKEN

A poll demanded on the adjournment of a meeting must be taken immediately. If a poll is demanded on any other resolution, the poll must be taken when and in the manner the chairperson directs.

24 Secretary

24.1 APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF SECRETARY

The Board will appoint an individual to the position of Secretary of the Company. They do not need to be a Member.

24.2 TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF OFFICE

A Secretary holds office for the duration and on the terms that the Board from time to time determines.

25 Minutes

25.1 MINUTES MUST BE KEPT

The Board must keep minutes in accordance with the Act of:

- (a) Proceedings and resolutions of meetings of Members
- (b) Proceedings and resolutions of Directors' meetings (including meetings of a committee of Directors)
- (c) Resolutions passed by Members without a meeting
- (d) Resolutions passed by Directors without a meeting
- (e) If the Company has only one Director, the making of declarations by the Director.

25.2 MINUTES AS EVIDENCE

A minute recorded and signed in accordance with the Act is evidence of the proceeding, resolution or declaration to which it relates, unless the contrary is proved.

25.3 INSPECTION OF MINUTES

Members may access the minutes of meetings of Members in accordance with the Act.

26 Accounts and audit

26.1 KEEPING ACCOUNTS

The Board must cause the Company to keep written financial records that:

- (a) Correctly record and explain its transactions and financial position and performance
- (b) Would enable true and fair financial statements to be prepared and audited.

26.2 RIGHT OF ACCESS

A Director has a right of access to financial records of the Company at all reasonable times.

26.3 FINANCIAL REPORT

If required by the Act, the Board must cause the Company to prepare a financial report and a Directors' report that comply with the Act and must report to Members in accordance with the Act.

26.4 AUDIT

If required by the Act, the Board must cause the Company's financial report for each financial year to be audited and obtain an auditor's report.

27 Inspection of financial records and books

Subject to rule 25.3 and the Act, a Member who is not a Director does not have any right to inspect any financial records or books of the Company except as authorised by the Board or by a resolution of Members.

28 Notices

28.1 NOTICES BY COMPANY

A notice is properly given by the Company to a person if it is:

- (a) In writing signed on behalf of the Company (by original, printed or electronic signature)
- (b) Addressed to the person to whom it is to be given
- (c) Either
 - (i) Sent by pre-paid mail (by airmail, if the addressee is overseas) to that person's address
 - (ii) Sent by electronic message to the electronic address (if any) nominated by that person.

28.2 OVERSEAS MEMBERS

A Member whose registered address is not in Australia may notify the Company in writing of an address in Australia to which notices may be sent.

28.3 WHEN GIVEN

A notice to a person by the Company is regarded as given and received:

- (a) If it is sent by electronic message:
 - (i) by 5.00 pm (local time in the place of receipt) on a business day - on that day, or
 - (ii) After 5.00 pm (local time in the place of receipt) on a business day, or on a day that is not a business day - on the next business day
- (b) if it is sent by mail:
 - (i) Within Australia - three business days after posting, or
 - (ii) To a place outside Australia - seven business days after posting.

A certificate in writing signed by a Director or Secretary of the Company stating that a notice was sent is conclusive evidence of service.
